

First Reading Ex 34:4-6. 8-9

A reading from the book of Exodus
With the two tablets of stone in his hands, Moses went up the mountain of Sinai in the early morning as the Lord had commanded him. And the Lord descended in the form of a cloud, and Moses stood with him there. He called on the name of the Lord. The Lord passed before him and proclaimed, 'Lord, Lord, a God of tenderness and compassion, slow to anger, rich in kindness and faithfulness.' And Moses bowed down to the ground at once and worshipped. 'If I have indeed won your favour, Lord,' he said, 'let my Lord come with us, I beg. True, they are a headstrong people, but forgive us our faults and our sins, and adopt us as your heritage.'

Responsorial Psalm Dn 3:52-56. R. v.52
(R.) Glory and praise for ever!

Second Reading 2 Cor 13:11-13

A reading from the second letter of St Paul to the Corinthians
Brothers, we wish you happiness; try to grow perfect; help one another. Be united; live in peace, and the God of love and peace will be with you. Greet one another with the holy kiss. All the saints send you greetings. The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

Gospel Acclamation See Apoc 1:8

Alleluia, alleluia!

Glory to the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit:
to God who is, who was, and who is to come.
Alleluia!

Gospel Jn 3:16-18

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John
Jesus said to Nicodemus, 'God loved the world so much that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him may not be lost but may have eternal life. For God sent his Son into the world not to condemn the world, but so that through him the world might be saved. No one who believes in him will be condemned; but whoever refuses to believe is condemned already, because he has refused to believe in the name of God's only Son.'

Dear Friends,

The feast of the Holy Trinity is about our Christian faith in a God who is Love and who gives all His Love by giving His only Son to humanity so that all may be saved through His Son's incarnation, death and resurrection. St John the Evangelist writes, "God loved the world so much that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him may not be lost but may have eternal life."

Although the Gospels never try to explain how there can be a Father, a Son and a Holy Spirit in the one God, Jesus speaks about all three. They are three distinct Persons who share the one nature. The Eucharistic Prayer at Mass states, " (Father) For with your only Begotten Son and the Holy Spirit you are one God, one Lord: not in the unity of a single person, but in a Trinity of one substance." It is a mystery which has been revealed to us by Jesus. We must accept it in faith because it is beyond human understanding. What is essential for Christians is to know that we have a God who is Father and Creator of all that exists, a Son who saves the world and a Holy Spirit who helps people to live with faith, hope and love. May the Virgin Mary Mother of God pray to Jesus for us. (Fr Guy)

SAFETY PLAN FOR MASS ATTENDANCE

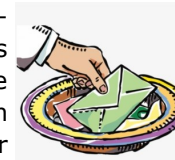

18th May—13th July

1. Our attendance week is Monday-Sunday (incl)
2. Please sign the Register in the church foyer with your full name and phone number. (This fulfils our government obligation)
3. Someone at the door may have the unhappy duty of explaining that there are already 20 people in.
4. We know that this will create inconvenience but we are bound by law, and we know you will all understand.
5. Social distancing to be maintained.

Blood Donations

Blood donors have decreased during this crisis time, however, blood donations are still much needed. The Archdiocese is keen to organise a group of young people to donate blood together in order to help those in need. Please email youth@aohtas.org.au if you are interested in this or would like more information.

Hampers/Shopping Delivery

St Vincent de Paul Society has flagged a need for volunteers to assist with shopping and delivering hampers to the more vulnerable in our community. Please email youth@aohtas.org.au if you are able to help.

Prayers for the Deceased

Please remember in your prayers our deceased parishioners, family and friends especially Silvana Paternoster, Peter Drake, Raelene Di Martino, Ken Young, Frank Hesman, Richard Challis and Benjamin Dramundru. Eternal rest grant unto their souls O Lord and let perpetual light shine upon them, may they rest in peace. Amen.
