

First Reading Am 7:12-15

Amaziah, the priest of Bethel, said to Amos, 'Go away, seer; get back to the land of Judah; earn your bread there, do your prophesying there. We want no more prophesying in Bethel; this is the royal sanctuary, the national temple.' 'I was no prophet, neither did I belong to any of the brotherhoods of prophets.' Amos replied to Amaziah, 'I was a shepherd, and looked after sycamores: but it was the Lord who took me from herding the flock, and the Lord who said, "Go, prophesy to my people Israel."' "

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 84:9-14. R. v.8

(R.) Lord, show us your mercy and love, and grant us your salvation.

Second Reading Eph 1:3-14

Blessed be God the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us with all the spiritual blessings of heaven in Christ. Before the world was made, he chose us, chose us in Christ, to be holy and spotless, and to live through love in his presence, determined that we should become his adopted sons, through Jesus Christ for his own kind purposes, to make us praise the glory of his grace, his free gift to us in the Beloved in whom, through his blood, we gain our freedom, the forgiveness of our sins. Such is the richness of the grace which he has showered on us in all wisdom and insight. He has let us know the mystery of his purpose, the hidden plan he so kindly made in Christ from the beginning to act upon when the times had run their course to the end: that he would bring everything together under Christ, as head, everything in the heavens and everything on earth. And it is in him that we were claimed as God's own, chosen from the beginning, under the predetermined plan of the one who guides all things as he decides by his own will; chosen to be, for his greater glory, the people who would put their hopes in Christ before he came. Now you too, in him, have heard the message of the truth and the good news of your salvation, and have believed it: and you have been stamped with the seal of the Holy Spirit of the Promise, the pledge of our inheritance which brings freedom for those whom God has taken for his own, to make his glory praised.

Gospel Acclamation

See Eph 1:17-18

Alleluia, alleluia!

May the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ enlighten the eyes of our hearts that we might see how great is the hope to which we are called.

Alleluia!

Gospel Mk 6:7-13

Jesus summoned the Twelve and began to send them out in pairs giving them authority over the unclean spirits. And he instructed them to take nothing for the journey except a staff – no bread, no haversack, no coppers for their purses. They were to wear sandals, but, he added, 'Do not take a spare tunic.' And he said to them, 'If you enter a house anywhere, stay there until you leave the district. And if any place does not welcome you and people refuse to listen to you, as you walk away shake off the dust from under your feet as a sign to them.' So they set off to preach repentance; and they cast out many devils, and anointed many sick people with oil and cured them.

10th & 11th July 2021, 15th Sunday in Ordinary Time - Year B

Dear Friends,

In the Gospel today, Jesus instructs His apostles and sends them out on mission. He makes them His co-workers in His own mission to bring God's salvation to all people.

Jesus gives His apostles the power to do as He does: they tour the surrounding towns and villages to drive out evil spirits, anoint the sick with oil and cure them.

As they work for God's kingdom, they should rely on God's providence and the support of those who receive them. However, success is not guaranteed, and they should expect rejection since not everyone will accept God's message. The most important thing is the mission entrusted to them. This puts a serious responsibility on all Christians to be true witnesses of the Gospel.

"Today we are invited, each one of us, to recognize our own calling and to seek to know what God asks of us in order to spread the Kingdom. Let us open our hearts and our minds in faith." (Abbot Philip – Benedictines) And may the Virgin Mary Mother of God pray to Jesus for us.

Parish Pastoral Council Report
 A committee has been established, endorsed by Fr Guy and the Parish Pastoral Council, which aims to find ways that we, as a parish community, can apply the principles of Laudato Si (the 2015 Papal Encyclical on Caring for our Common Home). This is in the context of Pope launching a 7-year Laudato Si action plan this year. Our membership is very small currently, and we want new people to join us! If you have any interest, questions, comments, please contact Anne Loring, the facilitator, on 0439 089 312 or loringanne@hotmail.com. Further information will follow as action plans are created. For interest, you may wish to visit the following sites for further background information:
