

First Reading Jer 23:1-6

'Doom for the shepherds who allow the flock of my pasture to be destroyed and scattered – it is the Lord who speaks! This, therefore, is what the Lord, the God of Israel, says about the shepherds in charge of my people: You have let my flock be scattered and go wandering and have not taken care of them. Right, I will take care of you for your misdeeds – it is the Lord who speaks! But the remnant of my flock I myself will gather from all the countries where I have dispersed them, and will bring them back to their pastures: they shall be fruitful and increase in numbers. I will raise up shepherds to look after them and pasture them; no fear, no terror for them any more; not one shall be lost – it is the Lord who speaks!

'See, the days are coming – it is the Lord who speaks – when I will raise a virtuous Branch for David, who will reign as true king and be wise, practising honesty and integrity in the land. In his days Judah will be saved and Israel dwell in confidence. And this is the name he will be called: The Lord-our-integrity.'

Responsorial Psalm Ps 22. R. v.2

(R.) The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

Second Reading Eph 2:13-18

In Christ Jesus, you that used to be so far from us have been brought very close, by the blood of Christ. For he is the peace between us, and has made the two into one and broken down the barrier which used to keep them apart, actually destroying in his own person the hostility caused by the rules and decrees of the Law. This was to create one single New Man in himself out of the two of them and by restoring peace through the cross, to unite them both in a single Body and reconcile them with God. In his own person he killed the hostility. Later he came to bring the good news of peace, peace to you who were far away and peace to those who were near at hand. Through him, both of us have in the one Spirit our way to come to the Father.

Gospel Acclamation Jn 10:27

Alleluia, alleluia! My sheep listen to my voice, says the Lord; I know them, and they follow me. Alleluia!

Gospel Mk 6:30-34

The apostles rejoined Jesus and told him all they had done and taught. Then he said to them, 'You must come away to some lonely place all by yourselves and rest for a while'; for there were so many coming and going that the apostles had no time even to eat. So they went off in a boat to a lonely place where they could be by themselves. But people saw them going, and many could guess where; and from every town they all hurried to the place on foot and reached it before them. So as he stepped ashore he saw a large crowd; and he took pity on them because they were like sheep without a shepherd, and he set himself to teach them at some length.

St. Monica

17th & 18th July 2021, 16th Sunday in Ordinary Time - Year B

Dear Friends,

In last week's Gospel passage Jesus called His apostles, prepared them for their mission and sent them out to the surrounding towns and villages to drive out evil spirits, anoint the sick with oil and cure them, and to preach that the kingdom of God is present among them. Jesus shared His power with them so that they would continue His work of salvation in the world.

Now, the disciples return full of their own importance instead of recognising that their success depended entirely upon the One who sent them, "they told him all that they had done and taught." The disciples fail to understand that they have been called to be Jesus' followers.

At the end of the Gospel passage Jesus reveals Himself as the Good Shepherd, "He took pity on them... and he set himself to teach them at some length." Jesus is the Good Shepherd because he loves them, is moved by their needs, and makes himself their servant and he preaches the Gospel of God's love to all.

Reflecting on Jesus the Good Shepherd challenges all Christians to be true followers of Jesus. This means that like Christ, His disciples are called to love and serve others, listen to God's Word, and put His commandments into practice in their lives. May the Virgin Mary Mother of God pray to Jesus for people of good will.
