First Reading Is 35:4-7

Say to all faint hearts, 'Courage! Do not be afraid. Look, your God is coming, vengeance is coming, the retribution of God; he is coming to save you.' Then the eyes of the blind shall be opened, the ears of the deaf unsealed, then the lame shall leap like a deer and the tongues of the dumb sing for joy; for water gushes in the desert, streams in the wasteland, the scorched earth becomes a lake, the parched land springs of water.

Responsorial Psalm Ps 145:7-10. R. v.1

(R.) Praise the Lord, my soul!

Second Reading Jas 2:1-5

My brothers, do not try to combine faith in Jesus Christ, our glorified Lord, with the making of distinctions between classes of people. Now suppose a man comes into your synagogue, beautifully dressed and with a gold ring on, and at the same time a poor man comes in, in shabby clothes, and you take notice of the well-dressed man, and say, 'Come this way to the best seats'; then you tell the poor man, 'Stand over there' or 'You can sit on the floor by my foot-rest." Can't you see that you have used two different standards in your mind, and turned yourselves into judges, and corrupt judges at that? Listen, my dear brothers: it was those who are poor according to the world that God chose. to be rich in faith and to be the heirs to the kingdom which he promised to those who love him.

Gospel Acclamation cf. Mt 4:23

Alleluia, alleluia!

Jesus preached the Good News of the kingdom and healed all who were sick. Alleluia!

Gospel Mk 7:31-37

Returning from the district of Tyre, Jesus went by way of Sidon towards the sea of Galilee, right through the Decapolis region. And they brought him a deaf man who had an impediment in his speech; and they asked him to lav his hand on him. He took him aside in private, away from the crowd, put his fingers into the man's ears and touched his tongue with spittle. Then looking up to heaven he sighed; and he said to him, 'Ephphatha,' that is, 'Be opened.' And his ears were opened, and the ligament of his tongue was loosened and he spoke clearly. And Jesus ordered them to tell no one about it, but the more he insisted, the more widely they published it. Their admiration was unbounded. 'He has done all things well,' they said 'he makes the deaf hear and the dumb speak.'

Dear Friends,

St. John the Baptist

Jesus is the One who heals our deafness and loosens our tongue to sing God's praises:

Email address:

Parish Website:

One day after Mass, a young excitedly announced to man Sr Annamaria, a Missionary Sister of the Sacred Heart, whom he knew well and who worked in his parish, "I'm getting married!" She replied: "I thought you were going to be a priest!" The young man sheepishly said, "No, No!" The idea of priesthood had never crossed his mind. But, at the same time, a bell rang in his head. It was the first time someone had ever suggested to him the idea of a call to the priesthood. As he walked back home he thought to himself, "Me a priest? I am not good enough! You have to be smart, know a lot, and be a perfect person. Besides, I am a sinner." So, he did not give it any serious thought for some years.

I tell this story because I feel that today's Gospel reading is about the power of Christ in our lives. Jesus is the One who heals our deafness and loosens our tongue to sing God's praises through the power of His word "be opened" and His healing touch. Today, Jesus brings healing to all who are sick and forgiveness to all sinners. This is what He does for the deaf man and this is what He can do for us too. May the Virgin Mary Mother of God, whose birthday we will celebrate next Wednesday, pray to Jesus for all.

A Praver for Father's Dav

God our Father, we give you thanks and praise for fathers young and old. We pray for young fathers, newly embracing their vocation; may they find courage and perseverance to balance work, family and faith in joy and sacrifice. We pray for fathers around the world whose children are lost and suffering; may they know that the God of compassion walks with them in their sorrow. We pray for men who are not fathers but still mentor and guide us with fatherly love and advice. We remember fathers, grandfathers, and great grandfathers who are no longer with us but who live forever in our memory and nourish us with their love. (Newman College – WA)

May St Joseph, loving father of Jesus, be their model and guide their hardships, and hopes for the future. May they find your beloved Son, Jesus always beside them, guiding them to holiness and happiness and watching over them faithfully as they have watched over us. Amen (A Father's Day Blessing - Prospect Hill Company Brockton MA, USA)

The righteous man walks in his integrity; His children are blessed after him. PROVERBS 20:7
