

First Reading Proverbs 8:22-31

The Wisdom of God cries aloud:
The Lord created me when his purpose first unfolded, before the oldest of his works. From everlasting I was firmly set, from the beginning, before earth came into being. The deep was not, when I was born, there were no springs to gush with water. Before the mountains were settled, before the hills, I came to birth: before he made the earth, the countryside, or the first grains of the world's dust. When he fixed the heavens firm, I was there, when he drew a ring on the surface of the deep, when he thickened the clouds above, when he fixed fast the springs of the deep, when he assigned the sea its boundaries—and the waters will not invade the shore—when he laid down the foundations of the earth, I was by his side, a master craftsman, delighting him day after day, ever at play in his presence, at play everywhere in his world, delighting to be with the sons of men.

Responsorial Psalm Ps 8:4-9. R. v.2

(R) O Lord our God, how wonderful your name in all the earth!

Second Reading Romans 5:1-5

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, by faith we are judged righteous and at peace with God, since it is by faith and through Jesus that we have entered this state of grace in which we can boast about looking forward to God's glory. But that is not all we can boast about; we can boast about our sufferings. These sufferings bring patience, as we know, and patience brings perseverance, and perseverance bring hope, and this hope is not deceptive, because the love of God has been poured into our hearts by the Holy Spirit which has been given us.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia!
Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: to God who is, who was, and who is to come Alleluia!

Gospel Jn 16:12-15

Jesus said to his disciples:
"I still have many things to say to you but they would be too much for you now. But when the Spirit of truth comes he will lead you to the complete truth, since he will not be speaking as from himself but will say only what he has learnt; and he will tell you of the things to come. He will glorify me since all he tells you will be taken from what is mine. Everything the Father has is mine; that is why I said: All he tells you will be taken from what is mine."

St. Monica

11-12 June 2022, The Most Holy Trinity - Year C

Dear Friends,

Jesus spoke of God as His Father. He even called God, 'Abba' or Daddy. Jesus also spoke of the Holy Spirit whom God the Father would send after He was gone.

In the Gospel today, Jesus tells the story of a Father who shares everything with the Son and sends Him into the world and the Spirit of truth who will come to complete the work of the Son, Jesus. The Spirit will continue to make Jesus present in our world and will make this truth ever clearer to us, until that Day when we will be finally led into its fullness.

The mystery of the Blessed Trinity is an invitation to accept in faith the mystery of how there can be three distinct Persons in the One God, and believe in God's infinite love for each person. It is God's loving presence in our lives which renews us and helps us to be pleasing to Him.

May the Virgin Mary Mother of God and Spouse of the Holy Spirit help us put our trust in Her Son, Jesus.

Confirmation Candidates

They are preparing to receive the Sacrament by Archbishop Julian Porteous at the 6.00 pm Mass on Saturday 2 July. We will also have up to 3 candidates from other parishes who will be confirmed on the night. Please pray for them all, their parents, sponsors and teachers.

Cecile Valenzuela RIP

Sheila Gonzales' mother—Cecile Valenzuela—passed away recently. We give our sincere condolences to Sheila and families as they grieve their loved one. Sheila will be away for a number of weeks and the parish office may not be open at the usual times.

Miraculous Events—Exhibition and live presentations

If you haven't heard already, the Miraculous Events: Science Tests Faith exhibition will be held on June 15-26 at Waterside Pavilion, Hobart (opposite Mawson's hut). It's open daily from 10am-4.30pm. There will also be guest presentations in different venues across Hobart: <https://hobart.catholic.org.au/miraculous-events-science-tests-faith/> Bring your non-believing friends and family members to these events because it might change their lives by bringing them to faith in Christ. You are encouraged to book into the live presentations ASAP in order to secure a seat (Eventbrite links are on the website). For more information, see the flyer on the table at the back of the church as well as a list of the live presentations.

Beanie and Blanket Drive

A big THANK YOU to all the generous people who donated Beanies and Blankets. Today I took about 40 blankets, a few beanies and some bed socks to Vinnies for the distribution to homeless or those receiving welfare packages. Any further donations will be taken to Vinnies on your behalf. Roberta has about the same number of beanies which she will take to Louis

Evangelium – a Church on Mission

On Wednesday evenings at 7pm, in the Parish meeting room, a group of parishioners meet to share a time of prayer, a teaching by the Archbishop, a moment of reflection and a short time of group sharing centred around the evening's question. The programme is being delivered in three modules: Heart: 25 May - 22 June; Head: 20 July - 17 August and Hands: 21 September - 19 October.

You are welcome to join anytime – it's not too late.

For more information visit: www.evangeliumproject.com or Parish contact: Marie 0472 545 919.

The Seven gifts of the Holy Spirit

When: 11.00am Saturday 25 June. Where: St John's Church. Who: Dr Drasko Dizdar. Free Entry: All welcome.

Have you ever wondered why there are seven sacraments? or noticed that the sacrament of Confirmation is about the seven gifts of the Holy Spirit? What role does Confirmation play in this seven-fold schema? How do the seven gifts of the Holy Spirit "confirm" our initiation into the mystery of God's love that Baptism begins and Eucharist fulfils? These are some of the questions we will be exploring as we ponder the deeper meaning of the mystery of Confirmation.
