SECOND SUNDAY OF EASTER - YEAR A

(DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY)

ST THERESE OF LISIEUX CATHOLIC PARISH MOONAH LUTANA IS COMMITTED TO PROVIDING A SAFE AND NURTURING CULTURE FOR ALL PEOPLE IN OUR PARISH.

TO BE ON EARTH THE HEART OF GOD

Dear friends, Easter day is the first Lord's day, the first Sunday, and every Sunday is a "little Easter" for God to re-create our lives as God raised Jesus to life. This is especially true for our Sundays in Easter season, which witness in a special way to the various encounters in the early church of the risen Christ in their midst and how those encounters transformed and shaped the first disciples. We will read from the Acts of the Apostles as our first reading all this season, not so much as a history of the early Church, but as a witness to the power of the Holy Spirit in the lives of the followers of "The Way" (what the first Christians were called), which impelled them to preach and live the Good News far and wide, amid persecution. The Gospels for this and next Sunday relate to the appearances of the risen Christ to his disciples, while the subsequent Sundays attempt to use a "new vocabulary" to express the role of our risen Lord as the Good Shepherd, the Way the Truth and the Life, and so forth. These Sundays prepare us for the ultimate gift of the Holy Spirit come Pentecost at the end of the Easter season. While we are not able to gather now to celebrate these Sundays of Easter, we can continue to take heart from the promise of Jesus: "for where two or three gather in my name, there am I with them" (Matthew 18:20). The risen Christ continues to be with us in our solitude and we are spiritually in communion with each other as the Body of Christ.

What kind of resurrection can we experience during this time of lockdown? The Gospel for this second Sunday of Easter describes it best. After Jesus' death, the disciples had locked themselves into a room out of fear and the resurrected Jesus had to come through the locked doors of their resistance to breathe peace into them. This year, we certainly need the risen Christ to breathe peace into a whole world that is in lockdown. We can pray in this time of pandemic that Jesus would come through the locked doors of our homes and hearts that are filled with fear and breathe peace within. The second Sunday of Easter is also known as Divine Mercy Sunday, a big feast day for many in our community that will involve praying the divine mercy chaplet. This devotion arose from St. Faustina Kowalska, a Polish nun, who reported visions and visitations from Jesus and conversations with Him. He asked her to paint the vision of His merciful divinity being poured from His sacred heart. Divine Mercy is the Easter gift that the Church receives from the risen Christ and offers to humanity. The mercy of God transcends our locked doors and offer us peace or Shalom which means deep contentment and wholeness. And Jesus commissions the disciples and us: "As the Father has sent me, so am I sending you." Experience the mercy of God and then go on mission! Even in this time of pandemic, we can look out for one another. Let us remember the crux of the Easter message: There is nothing to fear, nothing – not lockdown, not defeat, not threat, not loss, not sickness, not even death. The resurrection of Jesus assures us that in the end all shall be well, and all shall be well, and every manner of being shall be well (Julian of Norwich). If it isn't well, then it is still not the end!

Easter was never meant to bring us back to normal, and contains the potential to make all things new. I wonder what the new normal would look like post-pandemic. While I miss the Sunday community being physically present, the blessing over Easter has been the God-given courage to get out of our comfort zone and record the weekend Masses online for those who can see to stay connected to our Sunday worship. The blessing has included working more closely with a few in the Polish community to offer a bilingual Mass for both our English and Polish parishioners to tune into. This blessing has continued online and reached out to more than the usual numbers that would usually attend Mass. Will we continue recording our Masses? Perhaps this is part of the new normal in catering to an online church who is not able to be physically present at Mass for whatever reasons. Perhaps this means Easter and other important feast days in the parish can also be better done in collaboration now with both the English and Polish speaking communities involved. Whatever we decide, new possibilities, hopes and dreams have certainly emerged from this pandemic and it is an exciting time in that sense.

I like to leave the last word to Thomas whom we honour in a special way this weekend. He gets bad press for daring to doubt the risen Christ and demanding near-impossible signs: "Unless I see the holes the nails made in his hands and put my finger into the holes they made, and unless I can put my hand into his side, I refuse to believe." Thomas did not desire an abstraction of Jesus but a flesh and blood Jesus, a Jesus with wounds who is in solidarity with all who experience some form of crucifixion in their lives. Thomas gives us permission to doubt the presence of God in our darkness, while still being open to allow Christ to reveal himself, which led him to respond with the most heartfelt words of worship to be recorded: "My Lord and my God!" We can take heart from the words of the risen Christ: Happy are those who have not seen and yet believe. Even though we cannot see the risen Christ, we can be encouraged in our solitude by the triumph of his resurrection and we can believe in faith God will raise us too from our fear and despair and make all things new. In the heart of Christ, Krish.

RELICS OF ST THERESE AND HER PARENTS SAINTS LOUIS AND ZELLIE MARTIN

This week we were expecting the relics of St. Therese and her parents Saints Louis and Zellie Martin. However with Coronavirus all these plans were cancelled. The relics are presently at the Carmelite Monastery in Kew, Victoria. As part of the visit of the relics, prayer cards have been produced for the visit and are available at the door of the Church from this weekend. We have placed a scanned copy of the prayer card with this bulletin, for your information.

Loving God,
as we remember St. Thérèse and her holy family, teach us to live each moment as missionary disciples in love and generosity.
May her little way lead us to discern your will in loving surrender to what the Spirit is saying, and may we know that with you everything is grace.

Amen

THINGS TO DO THIS WEEK

Mealtime Prayer

Family Discussion

What are some things you believe because you have seen them?

What are some things you believe without having seen them?

Faith asks us to believe things we cannot see for ourselves.

Take turns to talk about the people who have helped build your faith in Jesus.

Family Activity

Write thank you letters to the people who have helped build your faith in Jesus e.g. parents, grandparents, godparents, sponsors, priests, teachers, friends.

Remember these people in your family prayer this week.

READINGS

19th April, 2020

Second Sunday of Easter

Divine Mercy Sunday

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON: (1 Peter 2:2)

Like newborn infants, you must long for the pure, spiritual milk, that in him you may grow to salvation, alleluia.

FIRST READING: (Acts 2:42-47)

The faithful lived together and owned everything in common.

PSALM: (Psalm 117:2-4, 13-15, 22-24)

Give thanks to the Lord for he is good, his love is everlasting.

SECOND READING: (1 Peter 1:3-9)

He has given us a new birth as his children, by raising Jesus Christ from the dead.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION: (John 20:29)

Alleluia, alleluia!

You believe in me, Thomas, because you have seen me; happy those who have not seen me, but still believe!

Alleluia!

GOSPEL: (John 20:19-31)

After eight days, Jesus came in and stood among them.

READINGS

26th April, 2020

Third Sunday of Easter

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON:

(Cf. Psalm 65:1-2)

Cry out with joy to God, all the earth; O sing to the glory of his name. O render him glorious praise, alleluia.

FIRST READING: (Acts 2:14, 22-33)

It was impossible for him to be held by the power of Hades.

PSALM: (Psalm 15:1-2, 5, 7-11)

Lord, you will show us the path of life.

SECOND READING: (1 Peter 1:17-21)

The ransom that was paid to free you was the blood of the Lamb, Jesus Christ.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION: (Cf. Luke 24:32)

Alleluia, alleluia!

Lord Jesus, make your word plain to us; make our hearts burn with love when you speak.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL: (Luke 24:13-35)

They recognised him at the breaking of the bread.

STEWARDSHIP

“Jesus came and stood among them and said to them, ‘Peace be with you.’” (John 20:19)

Are you good at making people feel welcome? When you meet someone new, like a new neighbour, a new work colleague or a new parishioner, do you make them feel at home? Many of us can probably do a much better job at this. When we make people feel welcome, we make them feel like they are included instead of being excluded. We are made for relationships – with God and each other. A simple “hello” and a smile goes a long way.
