FOR ALL PEOPLE IN OUR PARISH.*

TO BE ON EARTH THE HEART OF GOD

'Out beyond the ideas of wrongdoing and right doing, there is a field. I'll meet you there.' Rumi

Dear friends, in recent weeks, Jesus has used different images in parables to describe God's kingdom as He does again this weekend (Matt 13:44-52). These parables don't offer us simple paths of understanding a mystery but serve to disrupt the disciples' and our views of how the world should be. Just when we and the disciples think we understand what Jesus is saying, another parable is thrown in that scrambles our understanding. A treasure found in a field and a pearl of great price worth giving up everything for; a dragnet that hauls in anything and everything that needs to be sifted through. There is something about all these images that connect the action with the actors: seed and sower, yeast and woman, pearls and merchants, dragnet and fishermen. They indicate how God's reign is not about places but relationships. They also indicate how God's reign can cost everything and is expressed in the different faith journeys we undertake to discover its value. These journeys may be littered with anguish and failures as well as contain the joy of discovery and rediscovering. God's reign is found in the unexpected but it is not beyond our world if we are attentive.

Last weekend we welcomed our candidates Elise Hill, Leisha Vaughan, Narelle Sheehan and Thomas Males. Prayer 'flames' are available this weekend, thanks to Anne Thuringer's creativity, with their names written on for you to take one and pray for them as they continue their journey towards Confirmation and First Communion. This will happen on 2nd August at the 9am Sunday Mass.

We will continue to unpack the responses from the parish questionnaire and this weekend we will reflect on question 2 during the homily, while in the bulletin, we will have the graphics used last weekend to present the data on question 1. We would like to thank all who volunteered themselves last weekend to be ushers and cleaners and become part of the growing hospitality team in the parish. I forgot to express my gratitude to the ushers and cleaners who work on the weekdays. You all play an important role and we are very grateful!

In the heart of Jesus,

Krish

PRAYER INTENTION

In the entry foyer (Community Room) and main foyer we have placed a Prayer Intention box and some paper, if you would like to write a prayer or a special intention and place into the box. The box will be carried in the entrance procession and placed onto the altar and offered together with the bread and wine as part of the Eucharistic Offering.

DONATE! DONATE!

An electronic Donation Point is now available in the main foyer. You are able to tap your credit or debit cards and make a $10.00 donation towards the church. If you wish to make a $20.00 donation then you tap the machine twice but with about a 30 second break between each tap. This Donation Point is being trialled at a few churches across the Archdiocese.

MASSES ON-LINE

The parish is continuing to provide live-streaming of the 9:00am & 11:00am Sunday Masses available on the Parish FaceBook Page StTherese OfLisieux. These will be shortly after each Mass available on the Parish YouTube Channel <https://www.youtube.com/channel/UCOVWp5dkjeawjkxg4FaUZtA>.

ORDINATION TO THE PRIESTHOOD

On Friday, 31st July Deacon Chathura Silva will be ordained a priest at Church of the Apostles, Launceston. The Mass will be livestreamed at 7:00pm on YouTube at <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=9BMfU-84hns>. Chathura is being ordained for the Archdiocese of Hobart. Please pray for Chathura.

NEW ROSTERS

We are looking to recommence the Rosters for Lectors and Counters from weekend 15/16 August. If you wish to continue or wish to join please advise Deacon Michael before Friday, 7th August.

PARISHIONERS' CORNER

As we continue to self-isolate we as a community like to hear what is happening with each other. This corner of our bulletin is dedicated to achieving this. If you would like to add something please provide these to the Parish Office before 9:00am Friday morning either by email, phone or dropped off at the Parish Office.

POLISH NEWS

„Dopóki człowiek żyje, bramy nieba stoją dla niego otworem”

Po zakończeniu okresu wielkanocnego i Bożym Ciele liturgia Kościoła zaprasza nas do tzw. okresu zwykłego. Określenie zwykły może błędnie sugerować, że w Kościele nic się nie dzieje. Tymczasem pamiętajmy, że Kościół ma zawsze coś do zaoferowania. Tym razem chciałabym zwrócić waszą uwagę na bogactwo przykładów życia świętych, których mamy nie tylko czcić ale też naśladować by uświęcać własne życie. Dziś chciałabym przybliżyć postać św. Brygidy, która przez papieża Jana Pawła II została ogłoszona patronką Europy.

Św. Brygida pochodziła z zamożnej rodziny szwedzkiej koło Uppsali w Szwecji. Już wcześniej zauważono, że była inna niż jej rówieśnicy. Kiedy miała siedem lat, miała się jej ukazać Matka Boska, która ukoronowała ją złotą koroną. Rok później miała następną wizję, w której ukazał się jej ukrzyżowany Jezus. Chociaż od najmłodszych lat odznaczała się głęboką wiarą i marzyła o wstąpieniu do klasztoru, to jednak w wieku 14 lat, jak to często zdarzało się wówczas, została żoną syna gubernatora Ulfa Gudmarssona. Miała z nim ośmioro dzieci, a jedną z jej córek była inna późniejsza święta – Katarzyna Szwedzka. Brygida i jej mąż byli powszechnie szanowani, m.in. ze względu na szeroką działalność dobroczynną. Po kilkuletnim pobycie na dworze królewskim w 1341 r. Wraz z mężem pielgrzymowała do Santiago de Compostela. Po śmierci męża Brygida osiadła w domu zakonnym, związanym z cystersami, w którym prowadziła bardzo surowe życie ascetyczne. W tym też czasie doznała objawień, pod których wpływem zaczęła pisywać listy do możnych tego świata, przepowiadając im ich przyszłe losy. Znane są m.in. jej ostrzeżenia i surowe napomnienia pod adresem krzyżaków, którym przepowiedziała ich upadek („zostaną wyłamane ich zęby i skruszone ostrza ich mieczy”). Z wielką gorliwością przekazywała orędzie o Bożym miłosierdziu, zapisując słowa Pana: „Dopóki człowiek żyje, bramy nieba stoją dla niego otworem. Jeżeli ludzie zmienią swoje życie, i Ja złagodzę swój wyrok”.

Przyczyniła się do zażegnania kilku wojen w Europie i zaprowadzenia pokoju. Ale największą sławę i trwałe miejsce w historii Kościoła zapewniły jej listy z 1352 r. do papieża Innocentego VI, przebywającego wówczas w Awinionie, aby jak najszybciej wracał do Rzymu. Innym śladem działalności szwedzkiej świętej było założenie Zakonu Najświętszego Zbawiciela, znanego później jako brygidki. Była przekonana, że odnowa społeczeństwa może nastąpić tylko wtedy, gdy każdy dokona indywidualnej odnowy w swoim życiu osobistym i zawodowym. Taka odnowa stanowiła w jej mniemaniu to punkt wyjścia do prawdziwej pokuty i nawrócenia. – Tak więc można śmiało powiedzieć, że Brygida była reformatorką społeczeństwa. Będąc patronką Europy św. Brygida jest również naszą patronką, dlatego też zachęcam wszystkich do uciekania się do jej orędownictwa do Boga za nami i wypraszania łaski świętości życia. Życzę wszystkim błogosławionego tygodnia.

JULY 30 WORLD DAY AGAINST TRAFFICKING IN PERSONS

Theme: 'Committed to the Cause Working on the Frontline to End Human Trafficking'

The 2020 theme for the World Day Against Trafficking in Persons will focus on the first responders to human trafficking. These are the people who work in different sectors - identifying, supporting, counselling and seeking justice for victims of trafficking, and challenging the impunity of the traffickers. During the COVID-19 crisis, the essential role of first responders has become even more important. Particularly as the restrictions imposed by the pandemic have made their work even more difficult. Still, their contribution is often overlooked and unrecognised.

Laudato Si' Corner

We will devote this corner to elaborating on the importance of the Season of Creation for 2020. This annual celebration of prayer and action for our common home starts on 1 September, the Day of Prayer for Creation, and concludes on 4 October, the feast of St. Francis of Assisi, the patron saint of ecology. The Season of Creation is an ecumenical initiative that has been celebrated since 1989.

We are hoping to start up a Laudato Si prayer and action group in the parish, in collaboration with the school, to launch an event or programme or lifestyle during the Season of Creation. If there is anyone interested to be part of this, please let us know.

2020 Season of Creation Theme: Jubilee for the Earth

(taken from <https://seasonofcreation.org/>)

And you shall consecrate the fiftieth year and you shall proclaim liberty throughout the land to all its inhabitants. It shall be a jubilee for you: you shall return, every one of you, to your property and every one of you to your family. (Leviticus 25:10, NRSV)

Jubilee means “a ram’s horn”. It was blown to mark the start of a time of universal redemption. The year of Jubilee involved release from indebtedness, when injustices of the past fifty years were to be restored. It was also a time for rest for the land.

The theme of Jubilee has clear links to the root paradigms fuelling unjust exploitation, such as neoliberal and capitalist approaches to the world economy. It brings together the need for a prophetic voice on climate injustice and actions for the restoration of the Earth. The theme of Jubilee affirms the need for equality, justice and sustainability, and a transition to sustainable economies. It honours the Jubilee 2000 Campaign, which successfully called for an amnesty on debt for global South countries and redistribution of wealth. And 2020 marks 50 years since the first Earth Day when the environmental movement was born.

STEWARDSHIP

"We know that all things work for good for those who love God, who are called according to his purpose." (Romans 8:28)

Do you really trust God? Do you really believe that God will provide all that you need? Faith is a challenge for everyone at times. Putting our trust in God, in everything we do, in good times and in bad, means that God's plan for our lives may be quite different than what we planned. When one door closes, another one opens. Trust in God, His plan is always better.
