Fr Fidelis Udousoro

Dear Parish family,

At different occasions in the Gospel, Jesus withdrew from the crowd/the busyness of life in order to focus more closely on his mission. Busyness is something we cannot avoid in life. Yet, it has enormous meanings and lessons in it, but we rarely can get its meanings unless we retreat and ponder on it. Life experiences can either build or break us.

From Monday, the 11th till Friday, the 15th, all the priests of the Archdiocese will be having an annual retreat at the Emmanuel centre, Launceston. During this time, we will be reflecting individually on our lives as priests and servants of the people of God. It will be a time of prayer; listening to God. Please pray for us.

During this time, calls will be diverted to Inga Shelverton. Priests are allowed to return for a great pastoral need like funeral service. Other than this, please contact St Joseph's Church in the city. There are daily Masses at St Joseph's as well.

It is my hope that you too will be thinking of creating time for your personal retreat. It is really worth doing.

May God bless you and see you soon.

Yours In Christ,

Fr Fidelis
